

RE: I've been busy

Montclair Write Group Flash Fiction Anthology

I've been a member of the Montclair Write Group for a number of years. During July, I edited and published the fourth anthology of stories by members of the group. It's a free download and you can grab a copy at:<https://www.smashwords.com/books/view/948884>

How to Self-publish and Market a Book.

This is my latest book and it will be published on Sept 15. It's non-fiction and I have to say writing a novel is much more fun than writing a non-fiction book.

The ebook is available for pre-order at a reduced price of $2.99. After 9/15 the price will increase to $4.99. It's available for pre-order at Amazon <https://amzn.to/2Zbrx54>

While you may not be interested in book publishing and marketing, you probably know someone who is. Please forward this message to those people.

Do you want a review copy? Email me if you do.

Medium Articles

This month I only published two articles on Medium and one of them was a short story I write years ago. Here are links to the Medium articles:
